DINE WITH THE NOBILITY
Noble Assistant Rabban Frank A. North, Chairman of the Luncheon Committee, is lining up some splendid speakers for the Fall series of luncheons—men of distinction, power and brilliance of expression—who will regale us with food for thought on important topics of the day. Every fourth Tuesday of each month commencing Tuesday, September 26, in the ballroom of the Copley Plaza Hotel at 12:30 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to not only members of Aleppo Temple but visiting Shriners and guests who may be prospective Shriners. Tickets—$1.25—on sale at the Hotel before the luncheon.

NEXT GOLF TOURNAMENT
Merrimack Valley Country Club
Methuen, Mass., Wed. Sept. 13

Noble Alvah W. Rydstrom, Chairman of the Golf Committee, wants you to know that Nobles of any Temple in this section are invited to attend these social affairs as well as Nobles of Aleppo. Bring your friends with you, too, who are eligible for membership in the Shrine and let them get an idea of what it means to be a member of Aleppo. The cost has been reduced to $3.00 for the whole day's outing including golf, dinner, entertainment, etc. Prizes are awarded and tickets may be obtained at the Club the day of the outing.

NOW INVEST REAL ACTIVITY

ALEPPO TEMPLE A.A.O.N.M.S.

FORT PHOENIX PARK, FAIRHAVEN NEW BEDFORD, MASS.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 23, 1933

YOU ARE THE NOBLE we want to see there. YOU multiplied hundreds of times makes a crowd a grand affair—an occasion the likes of which cannot be denied.

For the sake of yourself and your Aleppo don't let YOU be anywhere else Wednesday, August 23.

On this day you receive an extra dividend of happiness.

A new account of good fellowship.

You put over a big deal of satisfaction for yourself.

So on Wednesday, August 23, with the first rays of the morning sun, hop out of bed early and sprightly. Unwind the turban of care. Shake off the gloom and hustle along to Fort Phoenix Park and be your Noble self with thousands of other Nobles.

One whiff of that real genuine old-fashioned clam bake (lobsters, too) will make you feel like a new man.

And who doesn't want to feel that way today?

Tickets including the clam bake, cigars, the latest wise cracks, good fellowship, sports and many surprises as well as prizes.....$3.00.

Procure your tickets at the Recorder's office, aboard the train or at the park.

Nobles of the Shrine Club of Southeastern Massachusetts may procure their tickets from Noble William Besrosky, Standard Electric Co., New Bedford, or at the park.

A parade consisting of officers of Aleppo Temple, Uniformed Units, and members starts from Aleppo Temple headquarters on Huntington Avenue for South Station at 8:45 a.m. sharp. Daylight Saving Time.

A special train leaves South Station for New Bedford at 9:30 a.m., Daylight Saving Time.

For benefit of Nobles wishing to entrain at Canton stop will be made at 9:50 A.M. D.S.T.

Get your railroad tickets at South Station, ticket window No. 13—$1.50 round trip.

Upon arrival at New Bedford parade from railroad station—electric cars conveying the Nobility to Fort Phoenix Park. Returning after the meeting the electric cars from Fort Phoenix will convey the Nobility to the New Bedford station for the return trip to Boston on their own special train. Leaving New Bedford 6:45, stopping at Canton 7:40. Arrive South Station 8:05 D.S.T.
